Dancing with the Stars 10th Anniversary

Excerpts from the Internet Postings About the Anniversary Show

Dancing with the Stars celebrated its 10th anniversary on Tuesday, April 28, 2015 and kicked things off with a spectacular opening number, featuring past and present contestants as well as pro dancers.

The opening number showcased 45 dancers, making it the biggest opening sequence in the history of Dancing with the Stars. Among the familiar faces twirling across the ballroom floor were Season 20 judges Julianne Hough, Carrie Ann Inaba, Bruno Tonioli, and Len Goodman. Also, this season's pro dancers, including Peta Murgatroyd, Tony Dovolani, Sharna Burgess, Artem Chigvintsev, Mark Ballas, and Allison Holker, all performed quick routines for the opening number. Witney Carson and Alfonso Ribeiro, who won Season 19, danced a short routine together, followed by the Season 18 champs Maks Chmerkovskiy and Meryl Davis.

Throughout the remainder of the night, Dancing with the Stars recapped some of the show's highlights from the past 10 years (20 seasons), including favorite group dances, best performances, biggest freak-outs and arguments, and lots of behind-the-scenes moments. Dancing with the Stars' 10th anniversary special transported viewers back to 2005 when the show's first season aired, and, boy, have things changed in the subsequent 20 seasons.

Season 1 champion Kelly Monaco and Val Chmerkovskiy stripped down to their underwear, splashing around in some water on a stage for a hot performance full of twists, spins, and flips.

Maks Chmerkovskiy and Meryl Davis' encore was one for the record books. They started off hand in hand and immediately went into a breathtaking and sensual performance. They lit up the stage with electricity, and, midway through, Maks unbuttoned his shirt. They didn't almost kiss like they did during their season, but, watching them dance, it was as if no time had passed at all.

Maks' audition video was hilarious. He wore a white beanie and a long-sleeved white sweater while rocking what was almost a bob haircut. His confidence knew no bounds, and he ended the tape by saying that everyone loves him, even if they think they don't.

"Deep inside you love me - you're just lying to yourself, because I'm the man," he said and, when the camera panned to present-day Maks, he was definitely blushing. Classic Maks!

After Derek Hough's foot injury sidelined him from the show, Sasha Farber stepped in to dance with Hough's former partners Maria Menounos, Amy Purdy, Kristi Yamaguchi, and Amber Riley. You would never know the replacement pro only had a week to learn the number because it was so seamless. Mark Ballas joined the performance with former partners Chelsea Kane and Katherine Jenkins, and everyone had fast-paced costume changes and complex solos. Oh, and Jenkins announced that she's four months pregnant at the end of the performance.

SALES ALIGN TO OFFER THE BEST CUNARD DEALS!!

On May 10, I will be leaving for a 17-day cruise on the Queen Mary 2. I have combined an agency cruise sale on May 6-20 coinciding with this cruise to offer my customers the best deals available. If I book your Cunard cruise on the ship, you will get from $100 to $800 in onboard credit and reduced deposits on most cruises of 6 days or more and 3% off world cruises. This benefit applies ONLY to bookings made ON a Cunard ship. The agency cruise sale will add from $25 to $300 in onboard credit for ocean view, balcony and suites and reduced deposits. The deposit for most cruises will be $300 per person (world cruise deposits will be more). These deposits are 100% refundable until final payment date.

In addition, Cunard currently has a many sales on Mediterranean cruises for the summer and fall 2015 including a 2-for-1 sale with competitive air fares available. Call to see if the cruise you want is included in these promotions.

If you are thinking of taking a Cunard cruise in 2015 or 2016, please call me to arrange for me to book you while I am on the ship. See our ad on page 9 for a list of featured Cunard cruises, most with additional group benefits. Even if you are not sure which cruise you want, you can cancel a cruise that was booked onboard and have the credit converted to a future cruise credit to be applied to another cruise (usually good for up to four years) with all the benefits of having booked onboard. If you decide not to cruise, you can cancel and get your money back. This is a no-lose scenario. [The only exception on cancellations is for cruises already within the 90-day cancellation window (i.e., they sail in May/June/July, 2015)]. For these cruises full payment would be required and cancellations fees would apply, but all the other benefits of booking onboard, agency cruise sale, group discounts and amenities, etc., still apply. Sail with me on the three ships that have the best ballroom dance amenities on the seas.

Happy Cruising & Dancing, Vivian Beiswenger

The eleven professional partners who have won are Alec Mazo, Cheryl Burke (twice), Julianne Hough (twice), Mark Ballas (twice), Derek Hough (five times), Kym Johnson (twice), Karina Smirnoff, Peta Murgatroyd, Tony Dovolani, Maksim Chmerkovskiy, and Witney Carson.

Another big hit of the night was when Lil' Kim and Amber Riley joined Patti LaBelle for a performance of her classic song Lady Marmalade. Another headliner, Billy Ray Cyrus, performed Achy Breaky Heart.

NFL players Kurt Warner, Jacoby Jones, Michael Irvin, Donald Driver, Hines Ward, Jerry Rice, and Emmett Smith all wore gold leather jackets to do a Paso Doble together. Without partners, it kind of felt like the routine would turn into Magic Mike, but then some female pro dancers came in to join the fun. They added some dangerous spins and were tossed around like footballs. Jones even re-created his jump with Karina Smirnoff!

The biggest number of the night came at the end when all of the stars, judges, and hosts did a coordinated dance that was more or less a hand jive as confetti poured over everyone. Happy 10th anniversary, DWTS!

The competition is neck-and-neck in the Dancing with the Stars season 20 semi-finals Monday, May 11 at 8 PM EDT on ABC! Noah Galloway, Nastia Liukin, Riker Lynch, and Rumer Willis have made it this far, but they must compete again to get to the finals and for chance at the coveted Mirror Ball Trophy. Each remaining couple will perform two full routines, including a Viennese waltz, quickstep, paso doble, contemporary and Argentine tango. Good luck all!

GOOD HEALTH: Shortcuts to Living a Healthy Life in an Unhealthy World, Part 2

By Dr. Veronica Collings

In the last issue, I wrote that the basic principles of health can be summed up as "toxins out, real nutrients in." Avoiding all toxicity is not possible in today's world, but the nastiest stuff is just one shopping decision away.

Two serious sources of toxins are right in your laundry room. Laundry detergents and fabric softeners are loaded with nervous system poisons that have been implicated with many symptoms. The biggest culprits that I have found are Downey, Bounce in any form and any detergent or product with Febreze.

Two examples are from patients in my office. One 35 year-old woman presented with recent onset of numbing hands and fingers with right-sided headache and episodes of severe anxiety. Fortunately for her, she was wearing a freshly laundered outfit and the smell of her very intense fabric softener immediately alerted me to the possibility of neuro-toxin. Because she had the symptoms for approximately a week at about the same intensity, I instructed her to rinse all her recently laundered clothing three times in cold water and call me in 72 hours. That's usually the time that the stuff takes to wear off. Sure enough, three days later, her symptoms were gone.

Another case is of a woman in her 70's who presented with numbing and tingling of both legs. Again, thanks to my nose and the recently laundered clothes, the same "treatment" resolved her symptoms.

If these patients had presented these complaints to a neurologist, thousands of dollars later in diagnostic tests and countless trials of ineffective drugs would have left them with the same symptoms and quite a bit more toxic from all the drugs. Even if you are not symptomatic, there is no point in letting neurotoxins accumulate in your body to wreak havoc in the future.

So, what to do? There are lots of alternatives to a safer laundry. I use ARM & HAMMER™ Liquid Detergent HE Compatible, Perfume & Dye Free. It has to say both things – i.e., sensitive skin and scent-free. The sensitive skin one alone has Febreze in it and that's another can of worms. Febreze "works" not by eliminating the source of smells, but by anesthesia to your olfactory nerve so that you can't smell anything. I don't know about you, but my cranial nerves don't need any more anesthesia! I don't use fabric softener sheets, but, if this is necessary for you, the very useful little book, Salt, Lemons, Vinegar, and Baking Soda: Hundreds of Earth-Friendly Household Projects, Solutions and Formulas, will provide you a safe formula and many alternatives to toxic household cleaners.

Here are two more tidbits of recent discoveries. The fad du jour is an electronic bracelet, "Fit Bit." If you haven't heard of it, it's an electronic device that measures how many steps you've walked and keeps all kind of nifty info about your "fitness" for the day. If you remember a previous article entitled "The Electromagnetic You," the concept that we are a composite of electromagnetic fields might be familiar to you. Let it suffice to say that wearing this item can interfere with or even disrupt those fields. A patient with a history of neurological injury reported having fallen three times in the prior week. She said that she just "lost her balance." I noticed she had the Fit Bit on her wrist and asked her how long she'd been wearing it and she said about two weeks. Again, following the adage of doing the easiest, least invasive, least expensive thing first, I told her to stop wearing it and see what happens. Not only did she report feeling better the next day, she recalled that she had found a Fit Bit in her parking lot and was wearing two of them at the same time til she found the owner just prior to the falling episodes. We are bombarded with massive amounts of this stuff that's never been around before. The evidence is mounting for this EMR being "too much of a good thing."

A final tidbit. On its release day, Apple sold $300 million worth of wrist watch computers. I don't know how much EMF is required to have available the knowledge of the entire world on your wrist. Since I live by "when in doubt, leave it out," I'll carry my cell phone in my purse and far away from vital organs. That's also why I use the speakerphone whenever possible. It's good to avoid electromagnetic radiation going straight into your brain. EMR is considered by many as the most virulent type of pollution. Short of living in a Faraday Cage (EMR block used in science experiments), the best thing to do is avoid exposure when you can, such as these two suggestions. One of my colleagues does home and office calls to measure the amount of EMR exposure you are experiencing. She then makes recommendations such as changing the location of your router, etc. Feel free to call the office for her contact info.

Til next time: see you on the dance floor.

Fit for Dance: Top Five Principles for Shaping Up Your Dancer's Body

by Renata Maslowski

Are you ready to rumba, samba or jive? This question may bring on a smile or a grimace. The answer depends on how your body feels during and after dancing. We often take for granted that dancing is not just a social activity, but also a sport that requires balance, posture, strength, endurance, flexibility and agility along with split-second reflexes. New research shows how to get fit for dance by using the top five principles for shaping up your dancer's body.

their muscles are too tight. Performing basic dance steps slowly or doing isolated movements of various parts of the body are excellent ways to warm up before dancing.²

Principle # 3: Stretch to improve flexibility. Dancing puts tension on the muscles of the shoulders, neck, back, and legs and can cause strains during exaggerated movements. Including a series of stretches after a warm up will help loosen the body and make any movement more comfortable.³

exercise props such as yoga balls and blocks, Thera-bands exercise bands, foam rollers and ballet barres can assist with specific exercises. Towels, tennis balls, stairs, chairs and railings can also be suitable substitutes for these props.⁵

These five principles will help shape your dancer's body and make any type of dancing more enjoyable. The key is to integrate these exercises regularly into your fitness routine. If you want to be ready to rumba, samba, jive or

Principle # 1: Build a strong foundation. Whether you are a social or competitive dancer, dedicating time for resistance exercise training will build the foundation to improve your overall dancing.¹ Developing back strength, leg power and speed is enhanced with weight training done 2-3 times per week for 30-60 minutes.

Principle # 2: Warm up before dancing. Most people spend their days sitting for hours, then come to dance and do moves with their bodies when Principle # 4: Achieve proper alignment. How we stand, sit and move all affect our bodies' alignment. Just like a well-tuned car, our bodies need to be periodically realigned to function properly. Performing alignment exercises regularly will improve posture in dancing.⁴

Principle # 5: Bolster up the weak points. Dancing places great stress on joints. Back, knees, elbow, ankles and feet require special attention and tender care to prevent injuries. Using gracefully sway through a waltz, fitting in cross training exercises will quickly make you fit to dance.

Dancing with the Stars: At Sea classes and competition on every Holland America Line cruise*

Glamour. Enchantment. Thrilling dancing. It's all part of the incredible entertainment on board.

On every cruise* guests will have the opportunity to:

- Participate in complimentary dance classes based on dance routines from the ABC smash hit show "Dancing with the Stars." This is a chance to learn the basics or new steps.
- Compete in the Dancing with the Stars: At Sea competition. Following an early elimination process, finalists will have the opportunity to take to the main stage with the ship's dance professionals. One Cruise Champion will emerge, based on the highest combined point total from our panel of three judges, as well as audience participation.
- At the end of October 2015, the Cruise Champion with the highest score from each ship will have an opportunity to perform as a finalist on the Champions Cruise in January 2016. Finalists, plus a guest, will be invited on a complimentary 7-day Champions Cruise to the Caribbean, where the 15 finalists will dance for the coveted mirrorball trophy and the title Holland America Line Dancing with the Stars: At Sea Grand Champion.

2015/2016 theme cruises just announced!

In addition to classes and competition, select cruises will also feature "Dancing with the Stars" celebrities and famed dance professionals. Guests will enjoy a chance to meet the dancers, ask questions and take photos; and see a dazzling production starring the celebrities and dance professionals. Previous theme cruises have included Mark Ballas, Derek Hough, Carson Kressley and Shawn Johnson.

KADEL'S KORNER: Bronze Tango Routine

by Peter Kadel, Sr. Fellow & Trainer, Imperial Society (ISTD) London & USA

2/4 timing. Slow=1 beat. Quick= ½ beat

Comfortable music tempo: 31 to 33 bars per minute.

This tango has most of the steps and elements required for a bronze medal exam. The ISTD bronze medal exam requires the demonstration of two bronze syllabus dances. Together with my recent quickstep routine, published in the February/April issue of the Dance Spotlight and taught during the Atrium Sunday classes, these two dances will suffice and serve you well toward your testing goal and dancing pleasure.

This tango routine is designed to travel the ballroom floor 1½ times, covering the long and short lines of dance and then to be repeated. Enjoy the tango!

The man will start out facing DW of the long LOD.

2 walks LF, RF (slow slow)

Progressive Side Step to DC (quick quick slow)

Walk on right foot (slow)

Reverse Turn - Lady in Line from DC to DW (quick quick slow, quick quick slow)

2 walks LF, RF (slow slow)

Progressive Link (to promenade position) (quick quick)

Closed Promenade pointing/facing DW, moving along LOD (slow quick quick slow)

Walk on LF into the Rock Turn starts and ends DW (slow slow quick quick slow quick quick slow)

Back Corte to DC (slow quick quick slow)

Reverse Turn - Lady Outside from DC to DW, ending at the corner (quick quick slow quick quick slow)

Back Corte to Promenade Position down the new LOD (slow quick quick slow)

Natural Twist Turn from DW to DC (slow quick quick slow quick quick)

Closed Promenade to DC (slow quick quick slow)

Basic Reverse Turn from DC to DW (quick quick slow quick quick slow)

2 Walks and Progressive Link to promenade position (slow slow quick quick)

Natural Promenade turn into Rock Turn around corner end DW (slow quick quick slow quick quick slow quick quick slow)

Repeat from beginning.

BITS AND PIECES of News of Potential Interest to Delaware Valley Dancers

- USA Dance celebrates its 50th anniversary this year. Check out their website, www.usadance.org, for more information. Congratulations and thanks to all the volunteers who made this happen.
- There is a lot of sad news this issue. We received reports of three area dancers passing who were way too young to leave us:
- Eileen Erlich, a popular dancer who frequented most Delaware Valley dance spots, lost her battle with cancer on May 8. Condolences to her family and friends. The funeral is on May 13 at 1 PM at Goldsteins, 310 2nd St. Pike Southampton, PA.
- Our condolences go out to the family and friends of Glenn Bilane, a well-loved dancer who frequented the dances at the North Penn YMCA with his partner Carole Toewe. Glenn died suddenly of natural causes on April 28 at the age of 60. A memorial service is planned for Sunday, May 17 at 3:00PM at Lehman Church, 300 S. York Rd, Hatboro PA 19040. Condolences and shared memories can be entered online at www.suessfuneralhome.net. In lieu of flowers, contributions in Glenn's name may be made to the North Penn YMCA, 2506 N. Broad St., Suite 208, Colmar, PA 18915.
- Our condolences also go out to the family and friends of Mary Keenan. Belatedly, we received notification of Mary's death on January 1. Donations can be made in Mary's name to Friends of St. John the Baptist Church, 146 Rector St., Manayunk, PA 19127.
- Congratulations to area dancers who appeared on this year's America's Ballroom Challenge: Mazen Hamza and Izabella in the American Smooth competition and Ilya Reyzin and his niece, Naomi Spektor, for their pro/am exhibition. This show was recorded at November's Ohio Star Ball.
